edition will be updated:

In Part I the content will be updated and some portions of the text will be rewritten for clarity.

A lot of attention will be paid to deleting outdated material and illustrations. About the old printouts will be replaced with new printouts from the latest instrumentation. Part II chapters will be thoroughly reorganized

to be more clinically useful with special guidelines like (when to use each of the various test strategies; how to arrive at a clinical diagnosis; and how pitfalls to watch out for). Part III will contain information on how to use the older instrument (HFA I) and the newer instrument (HFA II). It will also show the perimetrist how to perform tests and get results they did not know were possible (i.e., how to make a

copy of the field for another doctor).
