This is the fourth book in the watchers series by Veronica Wolff. And if you haven't started this series yet than you need to run to the nearest bookstore. Full of danger, passion, and mystery. My only problem is that most of the action doesn't truly start until the last fourth of the book. It leaves you wanting more.

She has lost many friends and people she considered family. In the ending of the last book, Emma who was her best friend was murdered and she blames herself.

Veronica Wolff left us with a cliffhanger in the last book and now we finally get some answers about our broodingly silent yet sexy Tracer Ronan. This novella is jammed packed with twists and turns from beginning to the very last page. If you love the Watchers series, and hot Scottish men like Carden and Ronan, you will not be disappointed.
